VOSSIUS & PARTNER opens new office in Düsseldorf

VOSSIUS & PARTNER, renowned IP law firm, will open an office in Düsseldorf, seat of an important IP court, on 1 November 2015. In addition to the already established offices in Munich, Berlin and Basel, this is now the fourth office in the German-speaking region.

We are pleased to welcome Dr. Kai Rütting, attorney at law, as a new partner at VOSSIUS & PARTNER. He previously held the role of European Counsel at Jones Day.

At the same time, Dr. Georg Andreas Rauh, attorney at law and partner at VOSSIUS & PARTNER, will shift the focus of his practice to Düsseldorf. Dr. Rauh and Dr. Rütting – both with many years of experience in complex patent-violation disputes - will jointly establish and expand the litigation business of the Düsseldorf office.

Christian Hufnagel, also a partner at VOSSIUS & PARTNER, will be in charge of the area of trademarks, design and competition law at the new office. Further support comes from Nils Bings, attorney at law, who brings substantial experience in the field of food law to the team.

Additionally, Dr. Christian Sandweg will reinforce the team as a patent attorney. He is a partner in the field of engineering and IT, which plays an important role in the cases handled by Düsseldorf courts. Further additions to the new office are envisaged.
